

Junior Youth Monologues

BOY/GIRL:

What do you dream about? I dream about dragons. All the time. I know they're not real but I want them to be. Sure, most girls/boys dream of unicorns/superheroes but I... I love dragons... And fire.

I want to ride my dreams in to the night sky and fly over the moon.

Dragons live in dreams. But what if we could make our dreams real? I could fly away from here and never come back. Leave a world of worries behind.

Does that mean the nightmares would be real too? Maybe. It's not worth it then. My nightmares are pretty bad.

I'll keep the dragons in my dreams. I don't need any more nightmares in my life.

WOLF (BOY/GIRL)

Man, you accidentally knock down some pig's house with a sneeze and they start telling stories about you. And now there's this little girl and her red hood. Who knows what they'll say about this one. I have self-a-team issues too. Everyone is always going around saying "what a big nose you have" and "what big teeth you have." It hurts. I just want to go away some place where I won't bother anyone. They're always promising happy endings but where's my happy ending? All that happily ever after seems to be reserved for princesses and cute little animals. Especially bunnies. Why are rabbits always getting happy endings?

They're rodents, I tell you. Rodents!
